China Youth Daily: "Youth Healthy Internet Use Philanthropy Campaign" Concludes: Walking Alongside Children in the Digital World

Recently, the "Youth Healthy Internet Use Philanthropy Campaign" concluded. The campaign was guided by the Publicity Department of the Central Committee of the Communist Youth League, organized by multiple provincial Youth League committees, and launched by Kuaishou as a strategic cooperation partner. Since its launch in September 2025, the campaign has organized experts from fields including cybersecurity, judiciary, and education, as well as positive-energy content creators, to enter campuses and communities in 10 locations including Kunming, Foshan, and Zaozhuang, directly addressing the challenges of the digital era and seeking answers for healthy internet use.
