From February 1 to March 3, Kuaishou launched the "Winter Holiday Interest Classes" series of activities, inviting over 100 renowned teachers and quality knowledge creators including Yu Shicun, Ji Lianhai, "Grandma Wu Who Doesn't Drill Problems" (Wu Yuxuan), and Li Yongle to conduct winter holiday live-streaming courses, helping students make academic progress, broaden their general knowledge, and find outlets for their interests during the vacation. The campaign simultaneously introduced an online check-in challenge, giving away tens of thousands of quality courses for free, inviting millions of "Little Ties" (young users) and their parents to participate together, embarking on a warm and profound winter holiday journey of new knowledge through companionship.
