To deepen east-west vocational education collaboration and employment services, support high-quality employment for college graduates, and promote talent return and hometown revitalization in central and western China, Kuaishou Philanthropy and Kuaishou Express Recruitment have officially launched the East-West Talent Mobility Cloud Recruitment Season, under the guidance of the Social Service Department of the Revolutionary Committee of the Chinese Kuomintang. The initiative focuses on centralized talent recruitment and cloud-based precision matching, partnering with renowned enterprises including Skyworth, SF Express, and Biel Crystal to offer over 30,000 quality positions. Leveraging Kuaishou's digital recruitment capabilities, the program connects job distribution, talent matching, and employment income generation, building a new employment service ecosystem featuring east-west collaboration, digital empowerment, and precise job matching.
