Securities Market Weekly: Kuaishou Launches 2027 Kuai Star Top Talent Program: Senior Tech Leaders Mentor and Cutting-Edge Business Scenarios Foster Young Talent Growth

Talent is the foundation of innovation and development. Against the backdrop of intensifying AI talent competition, Kuaishou has officially launched the 2027 Kuai Star Top Talent Program, open to outstanding 2027 graduates and young tech professionals within two years of graduation worldwide. The program covers large model-related cutting-edge directions, as well as Kuaishou's core business engines including audio/video, recommendation, advertising, and search. As a key youth tech leadership talent program, the Kuai Star Top Talent Program aims to achieve mutual success with technology leaders. Through real technology scenarios, exclusive training mechanisms, and comprehensive support, Kuaishou will provide young tech talent with clear growth pathways, supporting them in exploring frontier technologies and solving complex problems in industrial practice.
