Gongyi Daobao: Kuaishou Philanthropy Brings Accessible Cinema to Shanyuan Book House; 53 Events Record 1,482 Attendances by People with Disabilities

On September 23, the Beijing Kuaishou Foundation for Public Welfare held an event under its "Bright Cinema" initiative at Shanyuan Book House, offering accessible film screenings, an AI workshop for social good, and cultural performances to help people with disabilities participate in cultural life. Over the past year, the project organized 53 events, recording 1,482 attendances by people with disabilities. It has supported accessibility upgrades to the venue's facilities and audiovisual equipment, and will continue to provide accessible screenings, cultural support and disability inclusion awareness activities.
