On the occasion of the 33rd National Day for Helping the Disabled (全國助殘日), and in an effort to address the employment challenges faced by the disabled community, Kuaishou’s “Kwai Hire (快聘)”, in collaboration with the China Disabled Employment and Entrepreneurship Network Service Platform, launched the “521 Building Love Together” Special Recruitment Event from May 19 to May 21. During the event, job positions with ideal packages and which are disability-friendly were selected and showcased in live streaming sessions. Through the innovative approach of live streaming recruitment, this initiative aims to provide a wider range of employment choices for individuals with disabilities who are seeking employment opportunities.
