On September 6, under the guidance of the Office of the Beijing Municipal Cyberspace Affairs Commission, the "2023 Kuaishou Youth Summer Holiday Activities Report" was jointly released by the Internet Protection of Minors, Kuaishou Big Data Research Institute, Kuaishou Protection of Minors and Kuaishou New Knowledge. The report indicates that during this summer, Kuaishou undertook a special initiative to regulate the online environment for minors. Key areas included the misuse of AI face-swapping and AI drawing, particularly those spreading harmful information about minors. In total, 182,778 inappropriate videos were addressed and 6,387 accounts in violation were terminated. Moreover, a dedicated review team has been established to review content related to schools, strictly addressing any negative information for minors.
