

How “New Professionals” break barriers and stand out in the digital economy

2023.12.19

China Youth Daily : How “New Professionals” break barriers and stand out in the digital economy.

The Kuaishou platform has provided new opportunities and scenarios for learning and employment for the general public, especially the youth. An increasing number of young people are actively embracing new professions, integrating digital technology with digitalized work and personal career development, and continuously creating new forms of employment.