Recently, Kuaishou Charity, in cooperation with the Act for Love Charity Service Center of Guizhou Province, organized a fresh new concert titled, “Kuaishou Music Classroom” Guiyang Dream Concert”, at Guizhou Institute of Technology. Members of the Guizhou Province Music Association, representatives of the participating schools of the Kuaishou Music Classroom Project, folk art groups and over 3,000 caring audience members gathered to witness the event together. In July 2021, Kuaishou, in partnership with China Foundation for Rural Development, launched the “Beautiful Schools” Kuaishou Music Classroom” Project, donating music classrooms to rural schools and organizing music activities to provide quality music education opportunities for rural children. Since then, the “Music Classroom” has been incorporated into 31 schools in Guizhou Province, using music to draw attention to rural education.
