On May 31, Kuaishou released the “2024 Kuaishou Report on the Protection of Minors” (hereinafter referred to as the “Report”). The Report shows that Kuaishou continuously upgraded its minor protection mechanism in 2023. Apart from its ongoing efforts in improving the platform’s protection capabilities and the user experience for minors, Kuaishou has also been optimizing product functions and technical solutions for protecting minors’ private information. As of now, Kuaishou’s youth mode includes eight major features such as restricting minors from sending private messages and preventing strangers from following minors.
