

With live broadcast job recruiter selected as new occupation, the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security launches first live broadcast job recruitment training

2024.05.27

China Labour and Social Security News : With live broadcast job recruiter selected as new occupation, the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security launches first live broadcast job recruitment training

To enhance the skill training of live broadcast job recruitment anchors, the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security officially launched the first training campaign for live broadcast job recruiters on May 28 in Xiamen, Fujian. The training campaign, organized by the Social Security Empowerment Center of the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security, features courses provided by relevant provincial and municipal human resources and social security departments, Kuaishou's "Kwai Hire" live broadcast job recruitment platform and industry experts.